

PRIVACY POLICY

MARCH 2023

Who We Are

Oakhurst Advisors, LLC and its affiliates (together the “Oakhurst,” “we,” “us” or “our) believe that protecting the privacy of our current, former, and prospective investors, as well as our online visitors is important. The following privacy policy (“Privacy Policy”) explains how we collect, use, and disclose personal data (as defined below) from and about you through your interactions with us, including your interactions with any of our websites (“Websites”).

If you are a California Resident (as defined below), please review the below section, Additional Information for California Residents, for additional disclosures, our notice at collection, and a description of your rights under the California Consumer Privacy Act (with any implementing regulations and as may be amended from time to time, “CCPA”).

What Personal Data We Collect and How We Collect It

Collection of Personal Data

We may collect personal data about you when you visit our Websites, to facilitate your investments, and for our business and commercial purposes. “Personal data” for the purposes of this Privacy Policy means any information that can help us directly or indirectly identify you and, with regard to California residents only, personal information as defined under the California Consumer Privacy Act (“CCPA”).

Depending on how you interact with us, we may collect the following categories of personal data from or about you:

- identifiers and similar information such as, name, address, date of birth, email address, social security number, driver’s license number, passport number, online identifiers or other similar identifiers;
- certain information protected under federal or state laws, like a signature, bank account, or other financial information.
- characteristics of protected classifications under certain federal or state laws, including, gender, national origin, or marital status;
- commercial information, including records of products or services purchased, obtained, or considered, or other purchasing histories or tendencies, including funds invested, investments considered, or sources of wealth;
- education information, including information that is not publicly available, personally identifiable information as defined in the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act);
- internet or other electronic network activity information, including interactions with our websites or use of certain online tools;
- audio (e.g., voicemail), electronic, visual or similar information;
- professional or employment-related information, including occupation, compensation, employer, and title; and

- inferences drawn from any of the information identified above to create a profile reflecting your preferences or similar information, including your potential interest in investing in new funds.

Sources of Personal Data

We may collect personal data about you directly from you and/or your intermediaries through sources such as: (i) account applications, subscription agreements, and other forms or related documentation; (ii) written, electronic, or verbal correspondence with us or our service providers; (iii) investor transactions; (iv) an investor's brokerage or financial advisory firm, financial advisor, or consultant; and/or (v) from information captured on applicable websites. In addition, we may collect personal data from different sources, such as: (i) our affiliates, our service providers, or our affiliates' service providers; (ii) public websites or other publicly accessible directories and sources, including bankruptcy registers, tax authorities, governmental agencies and departments, and regulatory authorities; and/or (iii) from credit reporting agencies, sanctions screening databases, or from sources designed to detect and prevent fraud. We may also collect personal data through our use of cookies, as described in more detail below.

Cookies and Similar Technologies and Do Not Track¹

Our Websites use cookies for various purposes, including to distinguish you from other users of our Website and collect certain information about your interactions with our Websites. This helps us to provide you with a good experience when you browse our Websites and also allows us to improve our Websites.

We may use third-party web analytics services on the Websites, including Google Analytics. We use Google Analytics to help us understand how people are using our Websites. To find out more about how Google Analytics collects and processes data, please click here. Google Analytics has its own cookies that it uses to track and aggregate this information. You can prevent the use of Google Analytics relating to your use of our Websites by downloading and installing the browser plugin available here.

The Websites may also include social media features, such as the Facebook Like button, and widgets, such as the Share This. These features may collect your IP address, which page you are visiting on the Websites, and may set a cookie to enable the feature to function properly. Social media features and widgets are either hosted by a third party or hosted directly on our Websites. Your interactions with these features are governed by the privacy statement of the companies that provide them.

Some web browsers may transmit "do not track" ("DNT") signals. We currently do not respond to DNT settings in your web browser.

Embedded Content from Other Websites

Articles on these Websites may include embedded content (e.g. videos, images, articles, etc.). Embedded content from other websites behaves in the exact same way as if the visitor has visited the other website. These websites may collect data about you, use cookies, embed additional third-party tracking, and monitor your interaction with that embedded content, including tracing your interaction with the embedded content if you have an account and are logged in to that website.

Why We Collect Your Personal Data

We may collect or use personal data for any of the following business or commercial purposes: (i) performing services on behalf of a fund, including fulfilling your requests, maintaining or servicing accounts, providing investor relations service, processing subscriptions and withdrawals/redemptions, verifying information, processing payments, or providing similar services; (ii) communicating with you; (iii) performing our contractual and regulatory obligations to a subscriber to a fund, including providing updates on a fund's performance, providing tax reporting and other operational matters; (iv) detecting security incidents and protecting against malicious, deceptive, fraudulent, or illegal activity, including preventing fraud and conducting "Know Your Client," anti-money laundering, terrorist financing, and conflict checks; and (v) enabling or effecting commercial transactions.

How We May Share Your Personal Data

We may share all of the personal data that we collect with our affiliates in order to service your account or provide you with information about services that may be of interest to you. Otherwise, we do not disclose any personal data about you, except: (i) to service providers, including administrators, banks, auditors, law firms, consultants and placement agents; (ii) at your request or direction or with your consent; and/or (iii) as otherwise permitted or required by law or regulation, including, but not limited to, governmental organizations and self-regulatory organizations. Additionally, we may share personal data in the event we sell or transfer all or a portion of our business or assets (including in the event of a reorganization, dissolution, or liquidation).

Security of Personal Data

We will take reasonable steps to use security measures appropriate to the nature of the information to protect personal data against unauthorized access, exfiltration, acquisition, theft, or disclosure. Given the nature of information security, there is no guarantee that such safeguards will always be successful.

How Long We Retain Your Personal Data

How long we keep your personal data will vary depending on the type of personal data and our reasons for collecting it. In general, we will retain your personal data for as long as we require it to perform our contractual rights and obligations or for periods required by our legal and regulatory obligations.

What Rights You Have Over Your Personal Data

You can request to receive an exported file of the personal data we hold about you, including any data you have provided to us. You can also request that we erase any personal data we hold about you. This does not include any data we are obliged to keep for administrative, legal, or security purposes.

Links to External Websites

Our Websites may contain links to third party websites. Any access to and use of such third-party websites is not governed by this Privacy Policy, but, instead, is governed by the privacy policies of those third-party websites. We are not responsible for the information practices of such third-party websites.

Marketing to You

We may send communications about our services and events to you. You can opt-out of these communications through the “unsubscribe” option in our email communications to you or by contacting us using the details in How to Contact Us below.

Additional Information for California Residents

The CCPA imposes certain obligations on us and grants certain rights to California residents (“California Resident,” “you” or “your”) with regard to “personal information.” If you are a California Resident, please review the following information about your potential rights with regard to your personal information under the CCPA. The rights described herein are subject to exemptions and other limitations under applicable law.

Terms used herein have the meaning ascribed to them in the CCPA. We are a “business.”

Notice at Collection and Use of Personal Information

Information We Collect

Depending on how you interact with us, we may collect the categories of personal information listed above in the section Collection of Personal Data.

How We Use Collected Information

We also may use personal information from you for the business or commercial purposes described above in the section Why We Collect Your Personal Data.

For more information about our privacy practices, please review our entire Privacy Policy, which is available starting on the first page of this document.

California Residents' Rights under the CCPA

If your personal information is subject to the CCPA, you may have certain rights concerning that information, subject to applicable exemptions and limitations, including the right to: (i) be informed, at or before the point of collection, of the categories of personal information to be collected, and the purposes for which the categories of personal information shall be used; (ii) not be discriminated against because you exercise any of your rights under the CCPA; (iii) request that we delete any personal information about you that we collected or maintained, subject to certain exceptions ("Request to Delete"); (iv) opt-out of the "sale" (as that term is defined in the CCPA) of your personal information if a business sells your personal information (we do not); and (v) request that we, as a business that collects personal information about you and that discloses your personal information for a business purpose, disclose to you ("Request to Know"): (a) the categories of personal information we have collected about you; (b) the categories of sources from which we have collected the personal information; (c) the business or commercial purpose for collecting the personal information; (d) the categories of third parties with which we share personal information; (e) the specific pieces of personal information we have collected about you; and (f) the categories of personal information we have disclosed about you for a business purpose.

The CCPA does not restrict our ability to do certain things like comply with other laws or comply with regulatory investigations. In addition, the CCPA does not apply to certain information like personal information collected, processed, sold or disclosed pursuant to the federal Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act and its implementing regulations. We also reserve the right to retain, and not to delete, certain personal information after receipt of a Request to Delete from you where permitted by the CCPA or another law or regulation.

How to Submit a Request under the CCPA

You may submit a Request to Know, as described above, through the following toll-free telephone number 800-235-6517 or email us at compliance@oakhurstfunds.com. You may submit a Request to Delete through the aforementioned toll-free number or email address.

We are required to provide certain information or to delete personal information only in response to verifiable requests made by you or your legally authorized agent. When you submit a Request to Know or Request to Delete, we may ask that you provide clarifying or identifying information to verify your request. Such information may include, at a minimum, depending on the sensitivity of the information you are requesting and the type of request you are making, your name and email address. Any information gathered as part of the verification process will be used for verification purposes only.

You are permitted to designate an authorized agent to submit a Request to Know or a Request to Delete on your behalf and have that authorized agent submit the request through the aforementioned methods. In order to be able to act, authorized agents have to submit proof that they are authorized to act on your behalf, or have a power of attorney. We may also require that you directly verify your own identity with us and directly confirm with us that you provided the authorized agent permission to submit the request.

Changes to this Privacy Policy

We reserve the right to change this Privacy Policy at any time. Revised versions of the Privacy Policy will be made available on these Websites, and to investors via email. You may have additional rights under other foreign or domestic laws that may apply to you, including as set forth in additional privacy notices.

How to Contact Us

This Privacy Policy is available in alternative formats upon request. If you have any questions concerning this Privacy Policy, or to request this Privacy Policy in an alternative format, please contact us at compliance@oakhurstfunds.com.
